

Study Title: Understanding Refugee Flows: Evidence from the War in Ukraine
Researcher: Drew Johnston and Martin Koenen
Version Date: September 7, 2022

What is the purpose of this research?

The goal of this research is to understand the relationship between social connections, migration, and wellbeing.

What can I expect if I take part in this research?

The answers you give in this survey will be aggregated and analyzed alongside data on your friendship network to understand the role that friends play in shaping migration decisions and enabling migrants to access resources in their destination. After the completion of this survey, no further actions will be needed from you and your responses will be kept private.

What should I know about a research study?

- Whether or not you take part is up to you.
- Your participation is completely voluntary.
- You can choose not to take part.
- You can agree to take part and later change your mind.
- Your decision will not be held against you.
- Your refusal to participate will not result in any consequences or any loss of benefits that you are otherwise entitled to receive.
- You can ask all the questions you want before you decide.

Who can I talk to?

If you have questions, concerns, or complaints, or think the research has hurt you, talk to the research team at drewjohnston@g.harvard.edu